

PUBLIC OPINION QUARTERLY

VOLUME 87 • SPECIAL ISSUE • 2023

SPECIAL ISSUE: AUGMENTING SURVEYS WITH PARADATA, ADMINISTRATIVE DATA, AND CONTEXTUAL DATA

Joseph W. Sakshaug and Bella Struminskaya, Editors

INTRODUCTION

Augmenting Surveys with Paradata, Administrative Data, and Contextual Data.....	475
Joseph W. Sakshaug and Bella Struminskaya

ARTICLES

Factors Associated with Interviewers' Evaluations of Respondents' Performance in Telephone Interviews: Behavior, Response Quality Indicators, and Characteristics of Respondents and Interviewers	480
Dana Garbarski, Jennifer Dykema, Nora Cate Schaeffer, Cameron P. Jones, Tiffany S. Neman, and Dorothy Farrar Edwards
How to Detect and Influence Looking Up Answers to Political Knowledge Questions in Web Surveys.....	507
Tobias Gummer, Tanja Kunz, Tobias Rettig, and Jan Karem Höhne
Income Source Confusion Using the SILC	542
Christopher Robert Bollinger and Iva Valentinova Tasseva
Evaluating Pre-election Polling Estimates Using a New Measure of Non-ignorable Selection Bias.....	575
Brady T. West and Rebecca R. Andridge

RESEARCH NOTE

Privacy Attitudes toward Mouse-Tracking Paradata Collection	602
Felix Henninger, Pascal J. Kieslich, Amanda Fernández-Fontelo, Sonja Greven, and Frauke Kreuter

RESEARCH SYNTHESIS

Ethical Considerations for Augmenting Surveys with Auxiliary
Data Sources.....619
Bella Struminskaya and Joseph W. Sakshaug

For instructions on submitting a manuscript to Public Opinion Quarterly, please see the Notice to Contributors at <https://academic.oup.com/poq>
